MUNROE SPEEDING TO THE WEST, WHERE JEFFRIES IS FAST GETTING INTO SHAPE FOR COMING BATTLE

MUNROE CONFIDENT OF WINNING FIGHT

Butte Miner, on His Way to 'Frisco, Has Lost None of His Ideas About His Ability to Whip the Big Champion.

BY ROBERT EDGREN.

Now that Jack Munroe has been heard from, and is on his way to the Pacific coast, 'Frisco fight followers can lie down to sleep at night without taking slumber pills. The anxiety is over.

'Frisco scribes and sporting men have had their ears to the ground for a long time, expecting to hear the tread of the approaching miner. As the weeks passed some of the wise ones of pessimistic proclivities even went so far as to opine that the Butte boxer had taken to the mines to hide himself from the mighty Jeffries.

As soon as these go out to see Munroe work they will lose their illusions. Whatever faults as a fighter the miner may have, indecision or lack of confidence is not to be included among them. Munroe, when he is told that he is going up against the greatest in the fighting business, simply sets his teeth and says: "I know it, but I am going to lick him. He's going up against it some time, and I am going to be the one to trim him."

No matter what your own opinion may be, you could not meet Munroe and talk about the coming fight without carrying away with you a feeling of admiration for his stubborn courage.

Jeffries may beat Munroe, but if he does he will have to beat a man who will rush aggressively from the first minute of the fight until he goes down to stay.

When Jeffries came East after the affair with Munroe in Butte I met him and talked with him about the new fighter.

After They Met First.

"He's a dub," said Jeffries, spitting expressively into a corner of the room. "He stayed the four rounds with me in Butte by clinching and holding on. I wouldn't dare to stand up and fight him face to face. Why, if he ever gets into a ring with Peter Maher or Tom Sharkey he'll run so fast you can't see him for the dust he will raise, and he'll be licked at that."

I had the pleasure a short time ago of looking at Jeffries' eyes as they followed Munroe in the ring. Jack was engaged in the pleasant occupation of wallowing Tom Sharkey into the pugilistic background. Munroe was laughing merrily as he drove punch after punch into the sailor's battered ribs.

Sharkey, blood streaming, jaw set like a bulldog's, was struggling with all the grim courage of the brave man he is to stay on his feet. He was grimacing as Sharkey himself. He did not laugh at Munroe then, and I am very much of the opinion that he formed a new and interesting opinion of the miner's fighting quality.

Am I wrong?

Then why has Jeffries already been training for three weeks at Harbin, Springs? Why will he work there during the next month? He only trained a month for his match with Former Champion Jim Corbett. And I was at the Springs then, and saw that he did no work worth mentioning until a couple of weeks before the date of the fight.

This will be the first time that Jeffries has fought a man like himself, huge, strong, rough, rugged. It has been said of the champion that he has beaten the best men in the ring because he has far outclassed them in these things. Now we will have a chance to see how he will fight a man of his own kind. It will be a bear against bear.

Jeffries a Clever Boxer.

Jeffries has become a clever boxer. He showed that when he last fought Corbett in San Francisco. He actually outfooted the agile ex-champion. He was faster than Corbett. He boxed with better judgment. And he hit three times as hard.

Munroe a year ago was what Jeffries was three or four years ago. But the big man that I ever have seen fight has made such rapid improvement as the former. He was a novice when he fought Jeffries in Butte. He was a little better, but not much, when he met Peter Maher, in Philadelphia, and knocked him out with ease in the second round. He was vastly improved when he whipped the giant Limerick in Boston, and when he completely outclassed Tom Sharkey in Philadelphia he was good enough to give any man in the heavy-weight class a hard battle. In fact, I think Jeffries was the only one who would have beaten him that night. Munroe has been studying the game. When he meets Jeff in 'Frisco he will be a far better fighter than the man Jeffries watched in Philadelphia. He may be good enough to make the invincible giant tumble in the dust.

It is not likely—not at all likely.

What was the defeat of a champion ever regarded as likely until after its accomplishment?

Who thought that Jim Corbett would beat John L. Sullivan?

Who expected to see middle-weight Fitzsimmons knock out Corbett?

How many wise ring followers counted on Fitz being dropped by novice Jim Jeffries?

Who thought that unknown "Young Corbett" would whip Terrible Terry McGovern, or that the wonderful little Denverite would be beaten in turn by Jimmy Britt?

LEWIS WINS FAST GO WITH GRIFFO

(Special to The Evening World.)

BALTIMORE, Md., May 18.—Willie Lewis, of New York, last night defeated Ed Griffin in a hurricane fight in the eighth round before the Butaw Athletic Club. Harry Leamy was to have been Griffin's opponent, but failed to appear. The contest was fast from the start and the going until a vicious right hand against the jaw sent the kid to the canvas. Up to that time the battle was nearly even, with honors in favor of Griffin. He had Lewis in distress in the third and fourth rounds, but the latter came back strong in the fifth and with a body punch sent Griffin to the floor for the count. In the eighth the two went at each other like mad bulls and Griffin walked into a right uppercut and was sent down for the count. As he got up a left to the jaw put him down and all but out, when the police interfered.

Two Clubs After Naps.

Jerry Naps, the southpaw twirler, has received two offers from clubs in the Eastern League to pitch for them. Naps will give the managers an answer in a few days. Naps is to pitch for the Wilmington team against the Murray Hill at Orono on Sunday.

Baseball, To-day, 4 P. M., American League Park. N. Y. Amer. vs. Detroit.

THIS IS THE FACE THAT MUNROE WILL SEE IN THE RING. SOME OTHERS MIGHT JUMP OUT MUNROE WON'T.

RUHLIN-HART GO ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The heavy-weight contest between Gus Ruhlman, the Akron Giant, and Marvin Hart, the Louisville boxer, which is scheduled as the feature event at the Eureka Athletic and Social Club Friday night, at Baltimore, is creating almost as much interest throughout the country as it is creating in that city. Both Ruhlman and Hart are well known as aggressive boxers with a wallop in either hand, and any time they appear in a boxing contest it is sure to be warm from the first tap of the gong until the end of the bout.

Ruhlman arrived in Baltimore about two weeks ago and immediately went to Catonsville and started training for the fight. He has working with him Denver Ed Martin.

AFRICANDER WORKED AGAIN AT GRAVESEND.

(Special to The Evening World.)

GRAVESEND, May 19.—The galloping was accomplished down at Gravesend this morning with dark, cloudy weather and a fast breeze. One of the conspicuous moves of the morning was brought off when Trainer Dick Miller sent the Brooklyn Handicap candidate Africander a mile and a quarter in 2:11 1-2.

The race's time fractionally was: Eighth, 0:12 1-2; quarter, 0:24 1-2; three-eighths, 0:36 1-2; half, 0:49 1-2; five-eighths, 1:01; three-quarters, 1:12 1-2; seven-eighths, 1:20; mile in 1:27 1-2; and a furlong in 1:53 1-2; and the mile and a quarter in 2:11 1-2.

The Star Ruby horse had two two-year-olds to carry him the journey, and the son of Africa Queen clipped off his furlongs at an even rate of speed and finished without a sign of urging.

About the best work-outs shown were:

BABEUL—A half mile in 0:52, handled by H. K. Vingut, trainer.

LOHILLARD—Three-quarters in 1:19, handled by H. K. Vingut, trainer.

NEW JOCKEYS THE STARS THIS YEAR

Good riders are very plentiful on the turf these days. When last fall none of the big millionaires made extravagant contracts with any of the boys then riding it was predicted that there would be tall scrambling in the spring because there was then no new crop of riders in sight.

The winter tracks, however, are wonderful developers of riding material if they do not afford any other benefit to racing. To New Orleans the turf is indebted for Phillips, who is by long odds the best rider developed at that course. To Hot Springs the turf is indebted for Cormack, who is one of the most promising riders of the season. From the West has come Hildebrand, also one of the crack riders of this season. Then there are Travers and J. Jones from California, and the two Hennessys from New Orleans. These are not classed in the first division, but are promising.

Fuller seems to have gone back. Last year New Orleans produced the crack of the season—Fuller, Hicks and O'Neill. This year Fuller seems to have been relegated to the back numbers, and Hicks weighs so much that his mounts are very few. O'Neill is at present incapacitated through a fall, but when riding was in just as good form as last year.

Of the old guard Shaw is in fine form and Burns is riding as well as he ever did in his life. There was a disposition on the part of turfmen to pass Odum up in the early part of the season, but he forced his way into favor by his brilliant work in the saddle and is easily the master of all the riders.

Bullman spends more time on the ground than in the saddle because of his bad behavior at the post. He will soon find himself forgotten. Cochran galloping; D. Carter, trainer.

JACKSON—Four furlongs in 0:50, handled by J. Healey, trainer.

EAST KILBON—Five furlongs in 1:10, handled by J. Healey, trainer.

ALAN—One mile in 1:48, easily; A. Zimmer, trainer.

M'GOVERN AND HANLON MAY MEET

Another important match between feather-weight fighters will be arranged within the next forty-eight hours. The fighters who will be signed for this encounter will be Terry McGovern and Eddie Hanlon, the strong and aggressive little fighter of California.

The battle will probably be fought before the Hayes Valley A. C. of San Francisco, in June, and Morris Levy, matchmaker of the club, is willing to give the boys a big slice of the gross receipts to fight at his club.

GOLDEN MAXIM WON'T START

The declaration for the Suburban of Golden Maxim and Gold Faint, dated May 15, was rescinded by S. S. S. this morning. The Coney Island Jockey Club to-day.

THE SSS BEST TONIC

It increases the appetite, tones up the stomach, invigorates and strengthens the system, and furnishes purer and better blood for the rebuilding of the run-down constitution. You will find no tonic to act so promptly and beneficially where the health has given way, the strength over-taxed by hard work and close confinement. Those living in the low, marshy sections of the country, exposed to miasmatic poisons and breathing the impure air arising from stagnant pools and swamps, fill their systems are filled with malaria and their health undermined, will find S. S. S. a most excellent tonic, and its timely use has many times prevented the serious complications that so often result from malaria.

Good blood, good appetite and good digestion are the foundation stones of good health. S. S. S. supplies all these, containing as it does ingredients for the purification of the blood and also well-known tonic properties, making it the ideal remedy in cases where the blood has deteriorated, the stomach disordered and appetite has failed.

S. S. S. being a purely vegetable compound, leaves no bad after-effects, like the strong potash and mineral remedies, which are bad on the stomach and nerves. A course of S. S. S. now will fortify the system, and the impurities that have accumulated through the long winter months are more readily and promptly thrown off, and the warm weather finds you in good physical condition, instead of weak, run-down, tired and debilitated, with no appetite or energy, as is apt to be the case where the system is neglected and nature left to take care of herself. Medical advice without charge. Write us about your case.

Canton, Ohio, Aug. 6, 1903.

Gentlemen: S. S. S. is a good medicine. I keep it in the house all the while. It is an excellent tonic to give strength to the system and tone to all the organs. It gives appetite and energy and makes one feel better in every way. I have found it also an excellent blood purifier. For months I was troubled with an itching skin eruption on the face, and I tried specialists and many remedies to get a cure, but S. S. S. is the only medicine that seemed to relieve. I am now comparatively free of this eruption. I think a great deal of your medicine, believing it to be the best blood purifier and tonic known to the world to-day.

MRS. FRANK HORNER.

1380 E. Seventh st.

Altoona, Pa., June 30, 1903.

I have always been averse to giving a testimonial, and only do so now because of a desire to have others benefited by the use of your most excellent medicine. Before using S. S. S. I was troubled with Dyspepsia and Constipation, and my blood was in bad condition. The use of your specific has driven away all indications of Dyspepsia, regulated my bowels, enriched my blood, and caused me to gain 20 pounds in weight, so that I feel in better physical condition than I have in years. In my judgment there is no better tonic and blood purifier on the market than your preparation, and I unhesitatingly recommend it as such.
